Dear Parents and Carers of Mrs Anderson's and Mrs Cowling's class, Wednesday 25th January 2023

I am writing to inform you about the upcoming changes to staffing within Mrs Dixon's class. As you may be aware, Mrs Dixon is expecting twins and will be soon starting her maternity leave. Mrs Dixon will be finishing school after the half term break on Friday 24th February to begin her maternity leave.

Once Mrs Dixon begins her maternity leave, Mrs Cowling will be the class teacher in her Year One class. Therefore, this means that the Turtles will continue to have Mrs Anderson as their class teacher and our EYFS leader. She will continue to work alongside other members of our wonderful Early Years Foundation Stage Team (EYFS) including Mrs Wood-Stones, Miss Freear and also Mrs Welsh (our EYFS experienced supply teacher who is often used if we need teacher cover within the unit). I am also pleased to inform parents that Miss Jarvis will be returning from her maternity leave on Monday 27th March. Miss Jarvis is an experienced early years teacher who some of you may know from teaching in our nursery. On her return Miss Jarvis will be joining Mrs Anderson in the Turtles class.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank Mrs Anderson and Mrs Cowling for their continued commitment and dedication to making sure every child in our school receives the very best education.

Please remember our doors are always open. Thank you for your continued support.

Yours sincerely,

Mrs Amy Stone
Headteacher
